BEING, BELONGING, AND BECOMING BETTER TOGETHER

The B3 Team has been using this time to become better together, both internally and externally, in preparation for imminent growth opportunities! We have also expanded our virtual platform to further promote our values of celebrating diverse ways of being and creating a space where everyone belongs.

This season the B3 Team...

- Launched an online store & YouTube Channel
- Offered additional online programming
- Collaborated with Blawesome Flower Farm & Harvest's Table for socially distanced events
- Hosted our first pop-up at Chapel Hill Bible Church since the coronavirus outbreak
- Established an inter-institutional relationship with Duke's Disability Alliance (DDA)
- Consulted with UNC entrepreneurial programs such as Launch, Cube, 1789 and Innovate Carolina
- Welcomed growth in our community– we went from approximately 15 to 35 Team Members over Zoom!

B3 COFFEE CONVERSATIONS

In August, we launched the "B3 Coffee Conversations" interview series on our YouTube Channel to introduce and highlight the voices of the B3 Team Members

"I'm a huge fan of the Tarheels, I'm an employee at purple bowl, and I'm friendly."

"B3 means to me... friendships, going into the community, and showing my strengths."

-Jake

"How I got involved with B3 Coffee is that I found it on social media, on April 8th. They posted Zoom information, and that's how I got involved during the pandemic"

"I love supporting the business by wearing this shirt [the B3 Coffee shirt], and I love posting on social media."

-Ambassador Alex

"I'm proud of myself for graduating from the Appalachian State Scholars with Diverse Abilities Acceptance Program, working, and becoming an adult."

"I would like to work for B3 in the future and become a leader in the B3 community, and beyond."

-Sam

"I'm proud of myself for helping my neighbor out, graduating from high school, and learning how to do the French Press coffee over Zoom."

"I want the world to know that God is with us, and he loves us for who we are."

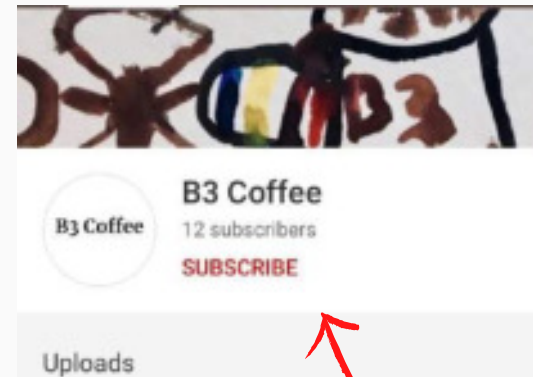

- Heather

"I'm very nice, I like walking, I like going swimming in the summer, I like movies and going out to eat."

"[At B3 Coffee], people accept you for who you are, while making coffee for people and making new friends."

-Laurel
